

Minnesota Women in Public Finance

Scholarship Application

Program Overview

Minnesota Women in Public Finance is a non-profit, educational, and professional networking organization for women in the public finance industry. It is governed by a board of directors representing the areas of government, finance, banking and law.

What is Public Finance?

Public finance generally refers to how governments raise and spend money. Individuals who work in public finance help governments at all levels—national, state, and local—obtain the necessary financial resources to pay for services and building projects such as schools, roads, parks, water, police and fire protection, libraries and health care.

Scholarship Overview

Minnesota Women in Public Finance operates a scholarship program that allocates up to $5,000 annually. Individual awards may vary. The goals of the scholarship program are to:

- 1) Recognize college-bound, female high school seniors and female undergraduate students who have exhibited scholastic achievement (preferably with an established aptitude in mathematics) and demonstrated leadership skills;
- 2) Encourage the consideration of careers in finance and, more specifically, public finance; and
- 3) Provide an opportunity for scholarship recipients to meet women established in the public finance industry and learn about the career options and opportunities available in this important field.

Application

To qualify and apply for the Scholarship, the applicant must, at a minimum:

- 1) Be a female, college-bound high school student entering her senior year in the fall of 2018, OR be a female, college undergraduate in her freshman or sophomore year in the fall of 2018;
